 McNamara's Bau, Artist at War Unveils
 Special Trailer for Yom HaShoah, Holocaust
 Remembrance Day.*

Trailer Features Original Song 'However
 Long Forever Is,' Performed by Indie Music
 Artist Ben Kid

Artist Ryn Kid

As the world marks Yom HaShoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day, on April 24, ShowBiz Direct (<http://www.showbizdirectdistribution.com/>) and Republic Pictures have unveiled a special trailer featuring the original theme song for Sean McNamara's powerful historical drama Bau, Artist at War, starring Emile Hirsch (Into The Wild, Milk, Lone Survivor, Once Upon a Time in Hollywood) and Inbar Lavi (Lucifer, Imposters).

The trailer features the official theme song for the film which will have its theatrical release by ShowBiz Direct in the U.S. and Canada on September 26, 2025. The film's theme song, titled "However Long Forever Is," is performed by indie pop music star Ryn Kid, and is written by Kid, Andrew Furze and John Coda.

Bau, Artist at War stars Hirsch as real-life Holocaust survivor and artist Joseph Bau and is distributed by ShowBiz Direct and Republic Pictures.

"We wanted to release this special trailer featuring Ryn Kid's emotional song to commemorate Yom HaShoah," comments

McNamara. "Joseph Bau's story reminds us that love, creativity, and courage can overcome even the worst darkness. It's a message we all need—now more than ever. We must never forget."
